

Hurry up!
2.6 billion people want to use the toilet

Imagine a life without a clean, private place to defecate and urinate. Imagine every day using fields, streams, railway lines or smelly plastic bags. Millions of people dream about the privacy of walls.

Millions of women have to do it with an audience

Without access to an appropriate toilet the lives of millions of women are dominated by the most basic of human needs. Every day they lack privacy, endure shame and endanger their health by waiting for dusk to avoid spectators. Have you ever thought about the true meaning of dignity?

Dirty water kills

The right to life is a fundamental human right. So is the right to water. Unfortunately, 1.2 billion people lack access to safe water. Don't be a witness to this violation.

Diarrhoea kills babies every day

In some countries, every fifth child death is due to diarrhoeal diseases caused by bad sanitation and unsafe drinking water. In the past 10 years diarrhoea killed more children than all the people lost to armed conflicts since 1945.

1.2 billion people drink dirty water every day

Does a cockroach in your teacup look more scandalous than the failure to provide safe water to millions of people? Can you imagine drinking water polluted by chemical or human waste? Did you know that one gram of faeces can contain 10 million viruses, 1 million bacteria and a hundred worm eggs? Now you do.
